

Cambridge and District MG Owners Club

Authorisation for holding information on the Cambridge and District MG Owners Club Website.

Following the website survey undertaken in November 2017 there was clear support to hold additional member related information on the website. This form allows you to decide on the information you wish to be available on the website.

The information will be held in accordance with current Data Protection requirements and will be available via the Members Page. It is important to note that the Members Page is accessed via a common password that will be known to all members. The password will be changed every 6 months.
